This workshop is presented by Robert Eisenbart, RN, Southern Wisconsin Center

We will look at Signs and Symptoms as well as Behavioral Indicators that are telling us something may be wrong with a client that has limited or no verbal ability to communicate their feelings or distress. Speaker will present conditions in each of the body systems and what it could look like both on inspections or through behaviors. The focus will be primarily on those individuals with developmental disabilities but the application could span broader than that population. There will be time allowed for some Questions and Answers at the close.

Registration Deadline: Tuesday, February 19th
